- 1) reasonable suspicion testing
- 2) post-accident testing and
- 3) return to duty testing.

1. Reasonable Suspicion Testing

Gohres Construction Co., Inc. may require a medical examination, breath test, blood test, and/or urinalysis when there is reasonable suspicion to believe that the employee is using drugs and/or alcohol at work or where circumstances or workplace conditions justify it (see reasonable suspicion report form)

2. Post Accident Testing

Each employee will be tested for prohibited drugs and alcohol use as soon as possible after a reportable accident. Gohres Construction Co., Inc. policy defines "reportable accident" as any incident that results in an employee requiring medical treatment that results in the filing of a workers compensation claim, or property damage in excess of five hundred dollars ($500.00). An employee shall not be relieved of duty pending the receipt of test results except where there is reasonable evidence that alcohol or illegal drug use was a contributing factor as determined by the treating physician.

3. Return To Duty Testing, Or Treating After Returning To Duty

All employees in violation of the drug and alcohol policy who receive an assessment and/or treatment option will be subject to a return to duty policy as a condition of employment. In essence, this policy states that Gohres Construction Co., Inc. will re-hire or retain the employee in return for the employee's promise to remain alcohol and drug free, complete a prescribed course of treatment if necessary, and submit to return to duty testing on a random basis at the employee's expense to confirm on-going policy compliance. This document will be kept in a confidential file in the Alcohol and Drug Program Manager's office. Nothing in this return to duty policy creates or is intended to create a contract of employment or a promise or representation of continued or guaranteed employment. Continued employment with Gohres Construction Co., Inc. is wholly at the discretion of the company.

4. Testing Guidelines

Gohres Construction Co., Inc. will conduct drug testing for the following types of substances:

- a. Marijuana
- b. Cocaine
- c. Opiates
- d. Amphetamines
- e. Phencyclidine (PCP)

Gohres Construction Co., Inc. will follow federal testing guidelines as set forth in 49 CFR, Part 40 in sample collection and determination of positive or negative result. For purposes of this policy, any employee who has a alcohol level of .04 or more when arriving at work or anytime during his/her working hours is considered to be in violation of the policy. A management representative will provide transportation and accompany the employee to Nevada Occupational Health Clinic or designated emergency care facility whenever a post-accident or reasonable suspicion alcohol and drug test is required per company policy. Gohres Construction Co., Inc. will bear the cost for post-accident and reasonable suspicion drug and alcohol testing. The employee will be responsible for the cost of return to duty testing.

IV. COLLECTION SITES

The Alcohol and Drug Program Manager will maintain a list of collection sites.

As set fourth in 49 CFR Part 40, all drug testing is done from urine specimens collected under highly controlled conditions. The employee provides a urine specimen in a location that affords privacy and the “collector” seals and labels the specimen, completes a chain of custody document and prepares the specimen and accompanying paper work for shipment to a drug-testing laboratory. The specimen collection procedures and chain of custody ensure that the specimen’s security, proper identification and integrity are not compromised.

Employee protection is also built in to the testing procedure. Laboratories that will be used for testing are those certified by the Federal Government. The initial test of any specimen will be an immunoassay which meets the requirement of the Food and Drug Administration for commercial distribution. All specimens identified as positive will be further confirmed using gas chromatography/mass spectrometry techniques.

Alcohol testing will be conducted through a breath and/or blood sample. Breath testing is performed on an evidential breath testing device (EBT). The EBT is scientific instrument which determines the concentration of alcohol expressed as “percent by weight. The confirmation test is done on the same EBT as the first test. When the confirmation result is different from the initial test, the confirmation test result will be used to determine employee consequences. The employee will be given a copy of the breath alcohol testing form. Blood alcohol testing will only be conducted when an EBT is not readily available for use or in the event the employee is unable to provide an adequate breath sample for whatever reason.

V. THE ROLE OF THE MEDICAL REVIEW OFFICER

The Medical Review Officer is a licensed physician who is knowledgeable in the medical use of prescription drugs and the pharmacology and toxicology of illicit drugs. The primary responsibility of the MRO is to review and interpret positive test results obtained through Company’s drug testing program. It is important to understand that a positive test result does not automatically identify an individual as an illegal drug user. The MRO must evaluate the alternative medical explanations that could account for a positive test result.

The review of a positive test result is initiated immediately upon receipt and is ordinarily completed within two working days after receipt of all information pertinent to the review. No information about the test result shall be given to the employer during this period. In addition to information provided by the employee, this review will include consideration of chain of custody documents prepared at the time of collection and, in connection with the laboratory, processing of the specimen. This review must also include review of the chain of custody documentation.

During the review of the laboratory results, the MRO will conduct a medical interview with the individual, review the individual’s medical history, or review other biomedical factors. The MRO must review all medical records that the tested individual submits when a confirmed positive test could have been resulted from legally prescribed medication.

If any questions arise about the accuracy or validity of a positive test result, the MRO will review the laboratory records to determine whether the required procedures were followed. This will require collaboration with the laboratory director, the analysis and expert consultants.

At this point, the MRO makes a determination as to whether the result is scientifically sufficient to take further action. However, if the records from the collection site or laboratory raise doubts about the handling of the sample, the MRO may decide the urinary evidence is insufficient and no further actions would be taken. In these cases, the MRO shall note the possible errors in laboratory analysis or chain of custody procedures and shall notify the proper officials.

In summary, the MRO determines whether there is some reason other than illegal drug use to explain a positive drug test. If the MRO verifies illegal drug use, the case is referred to the Alcohol and Drug Program Manager. If illegal drug use is not verified, the test result is deemed negative, the employer is informed, and no further action is taken

The Alcohol and Drug Program Manager will maintain a list of Medical Review Officers.

VI. CONTRABAND

When there is reasonable suspicion to believe an employee is in possession of contraband or suspected contraband, Gohres Construction Co., Inc. will request local law enforcement to conduct, as appropriate, an inspection of the employee, the employee's locker, desk or other company property under control of the employee, as well as the employee's personal effects or automobile if on company property. Any contraband or suspected contraband discovered in a common work area should be impounded and sealed in a container. The seal should bear the date, names of the person's present, general description of the contraband, etc. A receipt should be given for such seized property. Seized contraband should be retained in a locked cabinet under the exclusive control of the Alcohol and Drug Program Manager (or designee) until law enforcement agencies can be contacted to remove contraband for appropriate evaluation and recommendation. If possession is transferred, a chain of receipts should be established. Seized property may turn out, after investigation, to be property that properly was in an employee's possession. In such cases, the property should be returned and a receipt obtained.

VII. EMPLOYEE CONSENT

An employee consent to a medical examination and drug and alcohol testing is required as a condition of employment and an employee's refusal to consent will result in disciplinary action, including termination. Consent to a medical examination and testing includes an employee's obligation to fully cooperate. Upon request, an employee must promptly complete any required forms and releases and promptly provide a sample for testing.

VIII. DISCIPLINARY ACTION

Violation of this policy will result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination; however, Gohres Construction Co., Inc. is supportive of employees who voluntarily come forward and seek assistance for alcoholism or drug addiction. Gohres Construction Co., Inc. makes available information on chemical dependency treatment programs that provide access to professional services to aid the chemically dependent employee. All employee's who suspect that may have a drug or alcohol problem are encouraged to utilize these programs before the problem impacts their employment status. A request for assistance to enter an alcohol or drug rehabilitation program made by an employee after there has been a violation of the drug and alcohol policy shall not prevent Gohres Construction Co., Inc. from proceeding with appropriate disciplinary action including termination. However, Gohres Construction Co., Inc. may consider the employee request to determine what disciplinary action is appropriate.

Participation in these programs is voluntary and strictly confidential. No information regarding the employee's chemical dependency problem will be placed in the employee's personnel file or discussed with his or her supervisor without written consent. In the event the employee does not come forward voluntarily to seek assistance and is later found in violation of the drug and alcohol policy, only information that is necessary for the performance of normal business will be shared with his or her supervisor. All other information will be held in strict confidence.

DISCIPLINARY PROCESS

A. Investigative Suspension

Any employee suspected to be violation of the drug and alcohol policy will be placed on investigative suspension pending the results of the drug and alcohol testing. If test results are negative, the employee will be reinstated and compensated for wages lost during suspension unless there are circumstances that justify an unpaid suspension. If the test results are confirmed positive, the employee will be subject to the established disciplinary process. A refusal to provide either a specimen or consent form will constitute a policy violation and the employee will be subject to termination.

B. Test Validity

No later than ten (10) days after receipt of a positive drug test, the employee may obtain an independent analysis of the same sample at his or her expense. Gohres Construction Co., Inc. shall not have the request test performed unless the employee first pays in advance all costs of the second test. Upon request, the medical review officer will authorize the laboratory holding the employee's sample to release to a laboratory approved by the Department of Health and Human Services a sufficient quantity of the sample to allow a second laboratory to conduct a drug testing analysis. Because some analyses deteriorate or are lost during freezing and/or storage, quantization for the re-test is not subject to a specific cutoff requirement but must provide data sufficient to confirm the presence of the drug or metabolite. By requesting a second analysis, the employee authorizes Gohres Construction Co., Inc. to obtain a copy of any test results submitted to Gohres Construction Co., Inc. will be verified by the laboratory conducting the analysis. If the second test is positive, then the Drug and Alcohol Policy will apply. If the second test is negative, then the original test shall be disregarded and the cost of the second test shall be refunded.

C. First Offense Positive Test

Any employee having a confirmed positive test may be offered the opportunity for referral to a licensed alcohol and drug abuse counselor or licensed physician in addictionology for assessment and evaluation. This decision will be based on relevant factors involved at the time of the policy violation including but not limited to: the employee's job performance record; the employee's length of service with the company; safety risks associated with the policy violation and the employee's willingness to follow through with the all return to duty requirements following the policy violation. If the evaluation finds a lack of clinical data to support a diagnosis of chemical dependency, Gohres Construction Co., Inc. will require the employee to pass a reentrance alcohol/drug test before allowing a return to regular employment. Given the policy violation, the employee will also required to sign a return to duty policy that allows Gohres Construction Co., Inc. to randomly test the employee to determine on-going compliance with the policy.

If the evaluation indicates that the employee is diagnosed as chemically dependent and is in need of treatment, the employee may be offered a choice of entering rehabilitation in lieu of disciplinary action up to and including termination. This action may require an indefinite suspension of regular employment until the completion of a treatment program, Gohres Construction Co., Inc. will require the employee to pass a re-entrance drug or alcohol test before being allowed to return to employment. Additionally, the employee must follow all recommendations given by the treatment provider and submit to random drug or alcohol testing to confirm on-going compliance with the drug and alcohol policy. The employee will be required to sign a release of information, allowing Gohres Construction Co., Inc. to confer with the employee's treatment provider in order to monitor on-going compliance with treatment recommendations. Any employee who tests positive for alcohol or controlled substance prohibited by the police and refuses to report to an approved rehabilitation program for assistance within a reasonable amount of time (thirty days) after being notified to do so will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination.

D. Voluntary Admittance To a Treatment Program

Employee's voluntarily seeking treatment for alcohol or drug addiction are requested to notify Gohres Construction Co., Inc.'s Alcohol and Drug Program Manger in advance of their treatment admission, when possible. All information regarding the employee's participation in treatment will be held in strict confidence. Only information that is necessary for the performance of normal business will be shared with the employee's immediate supervisor. Upon returning to work, the employee will be expected to follow all recommendations given by the treatment provider. The employee will be asked to sign a release of information allowing the Alcohol and Drug Program Manager to confer with the treatment provider to monitor on-going compliance with their recommendations.

E. Second Offense Positive Test

1. Employees not diagnosed as chemically dependent and randomly testing positive again will be terminated.
2. An employee who has a second confirmed positive test while participating in treatment, or leaves treatment (voluntarily or administratively) prior to being properly discharged, will be terminated.
3. An employee who has a second confirmed test after completing treatment will be terminated.

F. Return to Duty Policy

In the event an employee resigns prior to completion of his/her return to duty policy and later reapplies for employment, that employee will be subject to the requirements for the time remaining prior to his/her resignation.

G. Cost of Rehabilitation

The cost of any program of rehabilitation in which the employee participates shall be the financial responsibility of the employee. Any time off work taken by an employee to enter an alcohol or drug rehabilitation program shall be without pay, except that an employee may use any previously accumulated vacation leave for such time.

IX. CONFIDENTIALITY

The Alcohol and Drug Program Manager will maintain all records and reports on drug and alcohol testing for review. Confidentiality is essential and will be controlled by maintaining all drug testing records under lock and key with access to these records limited to the Alcohol and Drug Program Manager or his/her designee. Test results may be disclosed to another member of management on a need-to-know basis and to the employee upon request. Disclosures, without employee consent may also occur when: the information is compelled by law or judicial or administrative process; the information has been placed at issue in a formal dispute between the employer and the employee or job applicant; the information is used in administering an employee benefit plan or other insurance program; the information is needed by first-aid, safety, or medical personnel for the diagnosis or treatment of an employee who is unable/unwilling to authorize disclosure; for review by the State Workers' Compensation Board or the State Unemployment Security Division in determining a pending claim; or the information is compelled by Federal officials investigating compliance with the Americans With Disabilities Act.

X. EMPLOYEE ASSISTANCE TRAINING PROGRAM

All employees shall participate in a company-sponsored drug awareness program. The program shall provide employees with information regarding: the company's drug-free workplace policy; available counseling, referral agencies and rehabilitation; and the penalties imposed upon employees for violations of this policy.

Supervisory personnel will receive additional training on recognizing performance indicators of probable drug or alcohol abuse and how to effectively intervene.

XI. TEMPORARY EMPLOYMENT SERVICES

Any temporary employee assigned to Gohres Construction Co., Inc. workplace shall be subject to the same rules of employee conduct relating to alcohol and illegal drug use which are applicable to employees of the company.

IX. FACILITY WORK RULES

Nothing in this drug and alcohol policy precludes management of any Gohres Construction Co., Inc. facility or job site from establishing work rules which apply to that facility or job site. Such work rules cannot be less stringent than this drug and alcohol policy; provided, however, that where any federal, state, or local law imposes restrictions on implementation or enforcement of this drug and alcohol policy, Gohres Construction Co., Inc. will modify this drug and alcohol policy in accordance with such restrictions.

XIII. CONTRACTORS AND VENDORS

Contractors and Vendors shall be required to cooperate with this policy in achieving a drug and alcohol free workplace. Violation of these provisions or refusal to cooperate with the drug requirements can result in the company barring contract and vendor personnel from all company facilities or participation in operations.

XIV. SEVERABILITY

If any part or provision of this policy, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance, should be held invalid by operation of law or by any tribunal of competent jurisdiction, or if compliance with or enforcement of any part of this provision is restrained by such tribunal pending a final determination as to its validity, the remainder of this policy, or the application of such part of provision to other persons or circumstances, shall not be affected and shall continue in full force and effect. Gohres Construction Co., Inc. reserves the right to change, amend, modify, delete or add to this policy at any time.

ALCOHOL/DRUG CRISIS MANAGEMENT

There are times when performance management will not be effective in handling a drug/alcohol crisis. When a supervisor observes a direct policy violation or criminal activity, he/she must take immediate action. When faced with a drug/alcohol crisis, the supervisor must effectively analyze the situation and consider appropriate options. The following questions can serve as a guide before proceeding:

1. What exactly did you observe?
2. How reliable are outside sources of information?
3. Who is involved in the incident (employees, strangers)?
4. Are you the direct supervisor of the employee(s) involved?
5. Could physical danger occur by taking action or not taking action?
6. Will intervening make the matter worse?
7. Is there a company policy that applies to the situation?
8. When should I ask for outside assistance?

Depending on the assessment of the situation, the supervisor may choose to observe or confront the situation. Observation may be chosen if there is a lack of factual data, witnesses are unreliable, or physical danger could occur in confronting. Confrontation may be chosen if the supervisor's assessment indicates the incident can be effectively and safely handled.

GUIDELINES FOR CONFRONTING AN ALCOHOL/DRUG CRISIS

1. Seek assistance from another supervisor to observe and evaluate the situation.
2. Quietly remove the employee(s) to a private area away from the work area.
3. Inform employee of your suspicion and request an explanation (with a witness, if possible)
4. Notify your supervisor and other appropriate management official.
5. Follow company policy and procedures (i.e., fit-for-duty evaluation, drug testing, discipline).
6. Turn over any confiscated material to appropriate authorities.
7. Document the incident, making a detailed record of all actions, observations, statements and other pertinent facts.
8. Keep a list of emergency numbers readily accessible (company officials, security, police, fire, hospital, EAP, Ambulance).

REASONABLE SUSPICION DISCUSSION GUIDE

1. Immediately relieve the employee from duty.
2. Quietly remove the employee(s) to a private area away from the work site.
3. Seek assistance from another supervisor to observe and evaluate the situation. Do not tell the Corroborating supervisor that you suspect alcohol or drug use. This could easily bias his/her observation. Simply state that you are concerned about the employee's behavior or job performance and would like him/her there to observe and or talk with the employee to get their opinion of the situation.
4. Two supervisors meet with the employee and ask for an explanation regarding your observations about their performance, behavior or fitness for duty (i.e., Joe, I noticed the following things in your performance or behavior today at work (use Alcohol and Drug indicator checklist) Can you explain why?
5. Based on their response, ask the following questions:
 - a) Have you been drinking alcohol or using any drugs on the job site today?

* Do not ask about any off duty use of alcohol or drugs before coming to work.
 - b) Are you taking any medication that would explain what I am seeing in your performance, behavior, fitness for duty?

* Do not ask about the identity or type of medication the employee is taking. If the employee volunteers this information you can take action upon the disclosure.
 - c) Are you aware of any medical condition that would explain what I am seeing in your performance, behavior or fitness for duty?

* Do not ask about the type or identity of the medical condition. If the employee volunteers this information you can take action upon the disclosure.

In the event the employee discloses information on a medical condition or medication use to explain your observations, inform the employee that they must obtain a written release from their physician or dentist that the medical condition or medication being taken will not affect their ability to perform their job safely. They should not continue to work or be scheduled to work again until you have the medical release.

6. If the employee admits to alcohol or drug use on the job - immediately transport them to the clinic for reasonable suspicion testing. It is critical to still test them as they may deny they admitted to use the next day.
7. If they remain in denial and you feel there is reasonable suspicion to test state:
"Based on my observations of your behavior or performance today at work I am requesting that you submit to a drug and alcohol test to rule out as a factor in your fitness for duty."
8. Never accuse the employee of using alcohol or drugs or being under the influence, impaired or high. Only a drug and alcohol test can provide objective proof of alcohol or drug use. Keep your discussion focused on safety and fitness for duty.
9. If employee agrees, have employee sign testing release and follow procedure for collecting sample.
10. If employee refuses to submit to testing:

- a) Ask employee for reason(s) why employee refuses to submit to drug and alcohol testing:
- b) Inform employee that the Company policy requires employee to consent to testing and that refusal is grounds for discipline, including termination.
- c) Again request employee to consent to drug and alcohol testing.
 1. If employee agrees, have employee sign agreement to testing and follow procedure for collecting sample.
 2. A management team member will arrange transportation and must accompany the employee at all times to the collection site, stay in the waiting room until notified that the collection has been completed and then arrange transportation home for the employee.
 3. If employee still refuses, inform employee that he/she is suspended pending the Company's decision on the matter. Request employee to sign refusal to test form.
11. After sample collection, inform employee that he/she is on investigative suspension pending test results and the Company decision on the matter.
12. In cases where the employee is suspected of being under the influence of drugs and/or alcohol, arrange transportation, attempt to persuade the employee to change his/her mind. Do not detain or physically restrain the employee. In cases where the employee refuses transportation and the employee's condition suggests that the presents a potential or actual safety risk to themselves or other drivers, notify the police by calling 911. State: "I am calling because I am concerned about an employee by the name of _____. Based on my observations of his/her behavior and performance today at work, I am concerned about his/her ability to operate a motor vehicle". Relay your observations to the officer but not voice an opinion about alcohol or drug use. Inform the employee that you intend to call the police unless the employee accepts transportation. Seek corroborating witnesses to verify employee's refusal of transportation.
13. Instruct the employee to contact the owner and set an appointment as soon as possible to review the matter.
14. Document the incident, making a detailed record of all actions, observations, statements and other pertinent facts.
15. Keep a list of emergency numbers readily accessible (Company officials, security, police, fire hospital, EPA, ambulance.)

DRUG PARAPHERNALIA GUIDE

The drugs themselves are not the only material connected with drug abuse. In many cases, some type of paraphernalia is needed to sue, store or conceal the drug. It may look as innocent as a common pocket mirror, used to snort cocaine, or as gaudy as a death-head water pipe, for smoking marijuana or hashish. Here are some examples of drug paraphernalia you might encounter:

Top left and center left - 2 examples of "roach clips", which clamp onto the ends of marijuana cigarettes and allow them to be smoked without burning the user's fingers. The clip on the top is attached to a hand scale used to weigh bags of marijuana. Bottom left - small plastic container, such as one used to store film, adapted to use in carrying small amounts of drugs, such as marijuana (shown here), hashish and powder or crack cocaine.

Top center - Cigarette papers, used to roll marijuana cigarettes, or "joints." Middle center - "smokeless" pipe for marijuana or hashish, especially useful for concealing drug use in the workplace. Bottom center - Death-head pipe, used for marijuana or hashish.

Top right - Small marijuana or hashish pipe. Center right - Glass pipe, used primarily for crack cocaine, but also used for marijuana or hashish. The open end permits a "shotgun" effect while inhaling; when used the user's finger is removed from the opening; the smoke is propelled deeply into the lungs, for more intense effects. Bottom center right - Cocaine paraphernalia; the small vials are used to carry either powder or crack cocaine. The vial on the right includes a "coke spoon," to hold doses of the powder from inhalation, or "snorting." The single-edge razor blade is used to divide the powder into individual doses, or "lines," while the rolled up bill is used to snort the drug. Bottom right - Hypodermic needle, used to intravenously inject cocaine, speed or opiates.

PUPILOMETER

Pupillary Drug Reactions

NARCOTICS: Opiates, cocaine, methadone - pupils constrict below 3.0 mm - 3 to 6 hours after use little or no reaction to light
Droopy eyelids.

STIMULANTS: Cocaine, Etc. Pupils dilated above 5.5 mm in ordinary indoor light. Sluggish or no reaction to light. Eyes may appear more wide open. Note: Pupil construction has been observed with abuse.

HALLUCINOGENS: LSD, Peyote, Mushrooms. Pupils will usually dilate and have a sluggish reaction to light.

PCP: No significant dilation or constriction, horizontal and vertical nystagmus. Droopy eyelids.

CANNABIS: Marijuana, hashish. Pupils may dilate, nystagmus, vessels on white of eye engorged causing increased redness.
